

Meet Mark Fabry, TAG Mortgage Broker in Perth

Mark's journey into the realm of finance and investing was catalysed by his deep-rooted passion for the intricate workings of financial markets and the pursuit of wealth through property. Recognizing that a career in finance broking was the natural progression to leverage his wealth of knowledge and experience, Mark embarked on aligning his career with his passion.

He now dedicates himself to empowering clients by facilitating access to essential financial products, with the goal of turning their dreams of homeownership or a diverse real estate portfolio into reality.

Outside of work, (when not searching real estate sales or scrutinizing the stock market), Mark loves spending time with family and friends. On the weekend you can find him indulging in outdoor activities and enthusiastically supporting the sporting endeavours of his children.

"Your advice is highly appreciated"

This is the second time using Tag services. The communication throughout the entire process was exceptional. Everything was explained thoroughly at every step, every question was answered whenever we called, the staff are all professional and super friendly. We could not recommend Tag any higher and would definitely deal with them again without hesitation.
